PROFILE

Katrina Gale Hernandez (is a Filipino-Canadian) who uses multi-media to create animations.

Katrina Gale H. is an Experimental Animation student, born in Bulacan, Philippines and raised in Toronto, ON. Gale uses mixed media and explores the boundaries of traditional and digital medium in her animation work including stop-motion, 2d and 3d animation. In her works, she subtly tackles societal and philosophical issues in her visual narrative storytelling. Gale aims to produce a mixed-media short film for Ottawa International Animation Film Festival. Her first contemporary work exposure was seen in the 2022 "First Self Portrait: Cultural Appropriation" Public Exhibition at OCAD University. With her skills and experience, Gale looks forward to being a candidate for NFB Hothouse 13: Call For Animation Artist residency. As she strives for an independent animation filmmaking path, she is open to break into the animation industry.
